Mr. Hurin, a flour-dealer in this city, brought suit before 'Squire M of all yesterday, against a man named Armond, who resides on Liberty-street, for twenty-five dollars damages to his buggy and harness, caused by Armond's goat butting his horse and causing him to run off. Hurin alleged that he had business in the vicinity of Armond's house; that he left his horse and buggy for a few moments, and when he returned found that the horse had run off; track will rethat a little girl told him that Arroand's goat walked right up and gave his herse a butt square in the face. The little girl was before the court, and stated that some other little girl told her so; that she did not see it herself. The case was dismissed. At the conclusion of corner," was led into court by a small lad, took a keen survey of the court, witnesses and spectators, gave one "meck" and was led out. In justice to "Billy," we would say that he is quite a small speciraen, being only sixteen inches high.

The following communication was re-ceived by the Police Judge, yesterday: House of Revuon,

Cinc innati, Sept. 15, 1859. 5
To His Honor, the Judge of the Police Court,
Cincinnati, Ohio: Fly order of the Directors of this institution, I hereby return to your said Court John O'Brien and Jeremish Shay, who were committed to this institution on the 13th inst. by the Police Court, for burglary. It is proven to the satis faction of the said Directors that the said John O'Brien and Jeremiah Sh'ay are more than sixt cen (16) years of age, and therefore, are not legal subjects of this institution; hence their return to your said court, that they may be dealt with according to law.

Very respectfully, H. M. JONES, Sup't H. of R.

AT Several days since a difficulty took place at the dinner-table of a boarding-house in the Thirteenth Ward, between an Irishman named James Burgan and an Englishman named John Featherstone. The two were arguing upon the subject of religion—one being a Catholic and the other a Protestant .- when Burgan became excited and threw a tumbler at Featherstone. after which he drew a knife and stabbed him in the breast, inflicting a severe wound. He was arrested yester day and charged in the Police Court with stabbing with intent to kill, and was committed in default of $500 bail to answer the charge at the Court of Common Pleas.

A couple of Germans, named Charles Nader and Joseph Podesky, got into a dis-pute night before last, over a card-table, at a coffee-house on the corner of Columbia and Ludlow-streets, which resulted in the former giving the latter a severe pommeling in the face. Nader was tried in the Police Court, yesterday, fined $10 and costs, and sentenced to the dungeon of the County Jail for the term of five days. They were playing a game called "sixty-six."

An infant, apparently but a few hours old, was left at the door of Mr. Fisher, corner of Plum and Longworth-streets, early yester-day morning. The following note accompanied the little charge:

"Mr. —: You are a stranger to the mother of this child. It is illegitimate. Will you take it and raise it properly, and oblige one who is not only poor but unfortunate."

We understand that Mr. F. will adopt the little foundling, and train it up in the way it

BURGLARY AT CLEVES .- We learn that the clothing-store of Thomas Archer, at Cleves, near North Bend, in Miami Township, of this county, was entered through a window, by a burglar, on Wednesday night, near midnight, escaping with about $175 worth of goods.

A very valuable horse was found in the streets in the western part of the city, by Lieutenant Cook, about three o'clock yesterda? morning. Lieutenant Cook: may be found as the Ninth-street Station-house.

PERSONAL.—Prof. Day, of Lane Seminary, and Dr. R. R. McIlvaine, have returned to this city from Europe.

INKLINGS.

Mrs. Wesling, an elderly and venomous Mrs. Wesling, an elderly and verbinouslooking German lady, was before the Police Court, yesterday, charged with assaulting her neighbor, Mrs. McNeff. A Mrs. Williams, a widow lady, who was visiting Mrs. McNeff, also came in for a portion of Mrs. Wesling's wrath. As the whole affair seemed very much complicated, the costs were divided between them, and the case dismissed.

A gentleman, in attempting to jump off the street-railroad car yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, at the corner of Sixth and Walnut, made two revolutions in the air, and then rolled over in the gutter, much to the amusement of a number of persons who were assembled on the street corners.

Michael Lyon, who was tried in the Polic Court, a few days since, for keeping a dis-orderly house, has instituted suit before 'Squire McFall, charging Police Officers Bliss, Schreider and McWilliams with malicious destruction of property—breaking in his door. an early hour yesterday morning. The attention of liquor dealers is asked to the advertisement of the person who wants to travel for some wholesale house. We have reason to know that he is competent for such a position.

A meeting of the Young Men's Christian Union was held at their rooms last evening. Interesting addresses were delivered by Messrs. William H. Neff, S. S. Fisher and Professor Sayler. Michael Julg, the German who killed his wife some months since, is making a desperate attempt to starve himself. He has refused to eat anything for several weeks past. Perhaps he don't like the "bill of fare." O'Brien and Shay, the two persons re-turned from the House of Refuge, yesterday, will be tried in the Police Court this morning on a charge of vagrancy. Henry Hymes, who has been retained in custody for some time past, on suspicion of having in his possession several trunks of stolen goods, was discharged by the Police Judge yesterday. Menissa Brown was charged in the Police Court yesterday with stealing a lot of jewelry. His trial was continued until Saturday.

COMMON PLEAS.

GOMMON PLEAS.

GRAND LARGENY.—Edward W. Daniels and Alfred Mills were before the criminal branch of this Court (Judge Cart-r presiding) charged with larceny of wearing appared values at $122, the property of W. W. McFarland. The prisoners were brought into Court handcuffied and remained so during the trial.

The prosecuting witness deposed that on the 22d of July he went to his room in Selves's Building, on Third-street, and apon unlocking the door and going in found these young men, the prisoners, inside. He at first supposed he had mistaken his room, and had commenced apologizing, when one of the men seized him by the collar, attempted to choke him and struck him several blows; witness, however, held on to him until he was arrested. The other escaped for the time. The trunk of his room-mate (Mr. Chapman) was placed on the hed and the contents were thrown round. Witness's clothes, pants, coats, shirts.—c., and a bowic-knife were taken from his wantrobe, some packed into a traveling-bag and others were lying round on the floor or table.

Some difficulty was experienced in eliciting from the witness the value of the articles. He stated in most instances the cost price, but appeared unwilling to express any optoion as to what their value would be in the market if offered at second-hand.

Some such scene as the following occurred as the value of an article was inquired for:

Prosecuting Attorney—What was the value of those cassimere pants?

Witness—I cannot say they were worth one cent.

Prosecuting Attorney—Now, what in your best judgment, would you say they were worth.

Witness—I cannot say they were worth one cent.

The Prosecuting Attorney here asked the Court to direct the witness to give intelligent answers. He could certainly state what, in his opinion, the articles were worth. From the way in which he recemed at present disposed to treat the interrogatories put by the State, it was a question whether his property ought to be projecte?. The witness said 'e would answer correctly, and not give an opinion open what he did not know. He did not know anything about the price of second-hand cluthes.

did not know anything about the price of second-hand clothes.

The opinion of the witness as to the value of many of the other articles was elicited after repeated ques-tions. He preferred, however, confining himself to stating the cost of the articles, and what they were worth to him individually.

On coming to the shirts, Mr. Baldwin, associate counsel with Mr. Brooke, thought a circuitous mode of coming at the opinion of the witness might be avoided by varying the question—and he asked:

"What would you pay for such a shirt yourself?"

"Yes, sir."

Yes, sir."

a cent. sir." [A laugh.] "Not a cent, sir." [A laugh.]
The witness stated that the bowie-knife was worth five dollars.
Several other witnesses were examined.
The Jury found a verdict of "guilty."
The prisoners were also convicted on a second indictment for a similar offense.
Wm. Colley, indicted with A. L. Shepherd, for stealing wearing apparel, (the latter entering a pica of guilty) was found guilty of receiving the stolen property—value assessed at twenty-eight dollars.

PROBATE COURT. NEW MODE OF EMANCIPATION—HAREAS CORPUS.—A negro woman, forty-seven years of age, and her seven children, from two to eighteen years of age, and cipated. It appears that in some instances, where slaves have been emancipated in the free States, and have returned to their former homes, the Southern scople complain of the act being a fraud on their laws. To avoid this issue, and prevent the judgment of the Courts from being collaterally impeached, the course adopted in the present case was to file a petition for a writ of habens corpus, and have it filed on the owner, who comes in and demurs thereto. The Court decided that it had jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter, and required the owner to answer He then avers, but does not vary his answer by affidavit.) that he has brought the slaves here for a temporary purpose, and intends to take them back. The Court holds the answer to be insufficient, and decides the negroes—because in the State of Ohlo by his consent—to be free. The owner then produces his deed of emancipation, and the Court orders it to be made up as part of the record.

the criminal. Soon after, while possing up Madiconstreet, he was ascorted by a German with "I bin glad you gits off so goot—day lets you go, did day."
The reporter was somewhat nonplused, and saked an explanation, when the honest Butchman asked him if he was not "de man wat was up for robbing all dem stores?" Some hard words followed, but so ridiculous did the whole matter appear that the reporter's anger soon changed into a hearty laugh.

I. O. S. M .- A grand concert will be given

i. O. S. M.—A grand concert will be given by Monter's American Corner Band at Odd-Fellows' Hall on Saturday evening. September 17, under the anspices of the Collins Lodge No. 1, Sons of Malin, for the benefit of the poor. Tickets thirty cents.

S. B.—Immediately after the concert the members of the order will meet in their half for the purpose of parade, in commemoration of the restoration of the tron Crown. Members of different seedess are particularly requested to attend. By order of the committee.

R. M. Carlisle was sworn in Clerk of the "Circuit Court," not of the "County Court," as an-nounced by the Enquirer. Our good-looking friend Kemp Carter still holds his place in the County Court, though he has been annoyed greatly since the Enquirer's announcement with persons making in-quirer as to his reason for leaving the situation he has filled with so much honor to himself.

William Costin Court vendible oddities at the Horticultural Society

William Gossin was, yesterday, tried in the Circuit Court for grand larceny, and when the jury returned the verdict of not guilty, he was so over-loyed that he fainted away.

STOCK SALES.—The following are the sales of stock at Drover's Inn, on Wednesday: Cattle, 65 by the pound, and a few by the head. Hogs, 80—stock—at 4½ cents. Cattle were rather dull sale, at from 2½ to 3½c., with a slight downward topdency. esterday morning for drunkenness and disorderly onduct, and one, Jerry McIntyre, sent up for twenty lays for vagrancy. CITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT .- The regular CITY COUNCIL LIAST NIGHT.—The regular meeting of the Council convened last night, the President in the chair.

The minutes were read and adopted. The committees were called, and a large amount of unimportant business transacted.

A question arose as to the duty of persons owning corner-lots to pave the corners. A motion was made to refer the subject to the Committee on Law, but the Council regarding it as a very small matter, it was lost.

Two bids were received for the building of the jail. Referred to Committee on Public Buildings, with instructions to report on the next Thursday evening.

CAMPBELL COUNTY FAIR.—We again call attention to the exhibition of the Campbell County Agricultural Society, at their fair grounds near Alexandria, to commence on next Tuesday, and continue the remainder of the week. The competition of the whole Union is invited, and we have no doubt it will create much interest. Stock, spricultural products, the various works of mechanical skill and the preducts of the loom, will be on exhibition competing for the prizes, not so much for their value as for the championship. For the better accommodation of passeegets from Newport, a regular omnibus will leave for the fair each morning at six o'clock. Admission to the grounds for persons over fifteen, twenty-five conts; between ten and fifteen, ten cents; under ten free; each horse five cents. CAMPBELL COUNTY FAIR .- We again call at-

Persons who are in the habit of driving at a Foreons who are in the habit of driving at a 240 speed over Licking bridge are cautioned against doing so any more, as the collectors intend hereafter to see the law enforced to the letter. It is a matter about which none can plend ignorance, for besides the general rule concerning bridges, the eyes of the person driving over this one is saluted with a warning in large letters, so plain that "he who runs may read." BREACH OF TRUST .- A man named Nelson, BREACH OF TRUST.—A man named Neison, who has for some time been driving an express waron on shares, for Win. Greer, a few days ago concluding be could make money faster by selling the horse and vehicle, than by carrying goods, sold the whole rig to a Mr. J. D. Patch, of cynthiana, sy, and received twenty-seven dellars in cash, and took an obligation for the remainder. He has since been missing, and officers have failed to find his whereabouts. Nelson has a family in Newport.

On account of the severe illness of a member of his family. Mayor Hawkins was anable to attend the Police Court yesterday morning, and the duties of his office were discharged by Esquire Payne. For this reason no decision has been rendered in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Selman.

Four individuals, named Quinly, Carnaban, Mishony and Bowlen, were fined $1 and costs, each, for breach of peace and James Cole $5 for same of fames, by Esquire Payne; also Mary Mullen, imprisoned for one hour for drinkenness. This composed the total of the police business yesterday.

Bound For the Fair — Vesterday three Comet Morgan colts passed through our city bound for the Hamilton County Fair. They are the property of Messrs. Thayer and Wright, who expect thave the ribbons attached to them. They are Campbell County stock, and are aged six months. Sealed proposals will be received by the

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Council until the 29th inst., for paving the unpaved side-walks on Madison-street, from Licking river to East Row street; also, for paving the unpaved side-walks on Robert-street, between Jefferson and Mayo. INDIANAPOLIS NEWS.

Indianapolis, September 15. MARRIED.—On Thursday, September 15, by the Rev. Mr. Smith, Mr. Richard T. Brown to Miss Molly J. Keely—all of Indianapolis. Dick, who was formerly of Chalinnatt, is a good fellow, and we heartly unite with his many friends in wishing him success. May High Heaven ever bless the twain. THE STEAM FIRE-ENGINE QUESTION.—As another indication of the popular sentiment in favor of steam fire-engines, we learn that the several insu-rance companies having offices here are strongly in their favor, and express a willingness to assist in the purchase of one. COMMITMENTS .- We learn from the morning papers that during the quarter ending the 16th instruction hundred and eighty-six commitments have been made to our County Jall, eighty-four for offenses against the State, and the remainder for violating ordinances. WHISKY DOINGS .- On the complaint of a Willsky Doines,—On the complaint of a Mrs. Kensel, Justice Conlin yosicrday fined the keeper of a doggery near White River bridge $20 for selling liquor to her husband. It appears that in going out to some of the country villages on business for his employer, he unwittingly halted to have his flask filled. Not holding the "precious all," he thought it economy to drink the remainder, and at the suggestion of some rowdies added some bitters. The dose proved toe much for his recollection, and while in that condition he was set upon by the rowdy party and shamefully beaten.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.—The first corn good and sound in the ear that we have seen was some days ago at Mr. Thomas's srocery, on Yirginta-avenue. It was raised near the city. It is worth about fifty-five centsper bushel.
